Rochester, NY,
February 24, 1989.

Hon. Frank Horton,
U.S. House of Representatives,
Washington, DC

Dear Mr. Horton: With your permission, let's sit back and take a look at what Congress has done to the current and future Senior Citizens of this country . . . those who struggled through a Depression, risked their lives and gave up several years of their life in a World War and then worked diligently to build a financial reserve for a well earned retirement in spite of these obstacles.

First, Congress developed a plan whereby those born from 1917 to 1921 would receive a smaller amount of Social Security for the same earnings [illegible] than those born prior to or after those dates . . . a just reward for serving your country in World War II. [illegible]

Then, Congress put a tax on 50% of the Social Security for those who worked hard [illegible]

Next, Congress did the Seniors a big favor by passing a Catastrophic Health Bill without informing them of the pros and [illegible]

Did they publicize that the cost will be borne by about [illegible] of the Seniors and the other [illegible] will be receiving "Welfare Benefits" at no cost to them?

[illegible]

Did they publicize that only a very small percentage ever reach the catastrophic provision?

Did they publicize that the cost to a Senior Couple will rise from the initial [illegible] a year to [illegible] a year in [illegible] . . . this estimate from the Treasury Department?

The answers are "No" and the reason is because they had an election coming up and [illegible]

Now let's go one step further and look at what the results are on Seniors ONLY:

1. [illegible]

2. The new Medicare tax for the Catastrophic Health Bill [illegible]

3. [illegible]

Needless to say, I am angry with Congress [illegible]

Congress should:

1. Repeal the law immediately.

2. Hold public hearings to hear what the Senior Citizens really want and need.

3. Explain in detail the projected costs and benefits.

4. Spread the cost over the entire population who will all benefit some day the same way they do under Social Security.

Thank you for your indulgence.

Sincerely,

Delmer G. Patterson.

INTRODUCTION OF LEGISLATION REFORMING MEDICARE CAPITAL PAYMENT SYSTEM

HON. BRIAN J. DONNELLY

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 12, 1989

Mr. DONNELLY. Mr. Speaker, I am introducing legislation today to reform the system used under the Medicare Program to reimburse hospitals for capital expenditures. The current system, in my view, encourages building and under-utilization, and fails to provide hospitals which accept their responsibility to the poor with sufficient incentives to provide uncompensated care.

As the ranking Democrat on the Subcommittee on Health, I become concerned when I hear of hospitals with low occupancy—especially at a time when our subcommittee is faced with the potential of cutting [illegible] billion out of the Medicare Program. To the extent that the current system of reimbursement for capital costs encourages over-building, that system needs to be reformed.

President Bush's proposal in the area of capital reimbursement does not, in my view, properly address the need for reform of the system. In many ways, the proposal is more revenue driven than policy driven. Nonetheless, if the Subcommittee on Health is unable to resolve the very serious policy questions concerning capital reimbursement, I am prepared to support the President's recommendation.

In general, States which have [illegible] tend to have hospitals with the lowest rates of occupancy. Some estimates show that there are [illegible] staffed but unused beds in the country. This translates into a [illegible] percent occupancy rate nationwide. There is clearly too much excess capacity—especially at a time when the Federal Government will spend [illegible] billion on capital reimbursement in fiscal year 1989. If States are not able to limit hospital overbuilding, the Federal Government should not be writing a blank check to hospitals. My bill imposes an additional level of control on hospital capital reimbursement to discourage overbuilding and to encourage hospitals to address their true mission: caring for sick people.

A description of present law, and my bill, follows:

PRESENT LAW

Medicare reimburses hospitals on the basis of a prospective payment system (PPS). The major exception to this general rule is reimbursement for capital expenditures, which are generally reimbursed on a reasonable cost (i.e., passthrough) basis.

When the prospective payment system was created in 1983, Congress agreed to incorporate capital reimbursement into the prospective payment system in [illegible]. [illegible] However, Congress has twice delayed the effective date of linking capital reimbursement to PPS; thus, under current law, capital payments are reimbursed on a reasonable cost basis through October 1, 1991.

Under present law, capital payments to hospitals are reduced by [illegible] in fiscal year 1989. Beginning October 1, 1989, there will be no reduction in capital payments. Reimbursable capital expenditures include depreciation, interest, and return on equity capital of proprietary hospitals.

The prospective payment system also contains a disproportionate share adjustment, which is an attempt to measure the amount of care provided to low income individuals. In general, a hospital receives an increase in its PPS payment when [illegible] or more of its patients are low income. The percentage of low income patients is determined by adding two fractions. The first fraction compares Medicare beneficiaries who also receive a SSI benefit to total Medicare patient days.

General Instructions

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.—We ask for this information to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. We need it to ensure that taxpayers are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax. You are required to give us this information.

Purpose of Form.—Use Form 8271 to report the tax shelter registration number the IRS assigns to certain tax shelters required to be registered under section 6111 of the Internal Revenue Code ("registration-required tax shelters") and to report other information about the tax shelter and its benefits. The tax shelter registration number and the other information must be reported, even if the particular interest is producing net income to the filer of Form 8271 (but see Projected Income Investments below). Use additional forms to report more than five tax shelter registration numbers.

Note: Investors are reminded that a tax shelter registration number does not indicate that the tax shelter or its claimed tax benefits have been reviewed, examined, or approved by the IRS.

Who Must File.—Any person claiming or reporting any deduction, loss, credit, or other tax benefit, or reporting any income on any tax return from an interest purchased or otherwise acquired in a registration-required tax shelter must file Form 8271. (If you are an investor in a partnership or an S corporation, look at item F, Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), or item C, Schedule K-1 (Form 1120S). If a tax shelter registration number or the words "Applied For" appear there, then the entity is a registration-required tax shelter.) If the interest is purchased or otherwise acquired by a pass-through entity, both the pass-through entity and its partners, shareholders, or beneficiaries must file Form 8271.

A pass-through entity that is the registration-required tax shelter does not have to prepare Form 8271 and give a copy to its partners, shareholders, or beneficiaries unless the pass-through entity itself has invested in a registration-required tax shelter.

Note: Even if you have an interest in a registration-required tax shelter, you do not have to file Form 8271 if you did not claim or report any deduction, loss, credit, or other tax benefit, or report any income on your tax return from an interest in a registration-required tax shelter. This could occur, for example, if for a particular year you are unable to claim any portion of a loss because of the passive activity loss limitation, and that loss is your only tax shelter benefit.

Projected Income Investments.—In certain cases, a tax shelter that does not expect to reduce the cumulative tax liability of any investor during the 5-year period ending after the date the investment is first offered for sale may be considered a "projected income investment." Such a tax shelter will not have to register, and thus not have to furnish a tax shelter registration number to investors, unless and until it ceases to be a projected income investment. It is possible, therefore, that you may not be furnished a tax shelter registration number, and not have to report it, for several years after you purchase or otherwise acquire your interest in the tax shelter. If you are subsequently furnished a tax shelter registration number because of a tax shelter that ceases to be a projected income investment, follow the instructions for Form 8271. However, you are required to file Form 8271 only for tax years ending on or after the date the tax shelter ceases to be a projected income investment.

Filing Form 8271.—Attach Form 8271, and any other required information, to any return, including applications for tentative refund (Forms 1045 and 1139), and amended returns (Forms 1040X and 1120X), on which a deduction, loss, credit, or other tax benefit is claimed or reported, or any income reported, from an interest in a registration-required tax shelter.

If you are a pass-through entity, you must provide your partners, shareholders, or beneficiaries with copies of the following documents (in addition to your Schedule K-1, which you normally provide): your Form 8271 (unless you are the registration-required tax shelter and have not invested in any other registration-required tax shelter); Forms 8271 provided to you by any other pass-through entity; and Schedules K-1 (for entities listed on the Forms 8271 that have been provided to you, or listed on your Form 8271).

If you received Schedules K-1 from tax shelters that are pass-through entities, or Forms 8271 and Schedules K-1 from pass-through entities that have invested in tax shelters, attach copies of those forms and schedules to this Form 8271. See the instructions for Part II.

Example 1: XYZ partnership is a registration-required tax shelter. It has not invested in any other registration-required tax shelter. A is a partner in XYZ. XYZ does not have to prepare a Form 8271 and give a copy to A. If A claims a deduction, loss, credit, or other tax benefit from XYZ (or reports any income from XYZ) on any return, A must prepare a Form 8271 and attach it to A's tax return, along with a copy of XYZ's Schedule K-1.

Example 2: DEF partnership is a registration-required tax shelter. DEF is a partner in GHI partnership, which is also a registration-required tax shelter (GHI has not invested in any other registration-required tax shelter). B is a partner in DEF. GHI must give a Schedule K-1 to DEF. DEF must prepare its own Form 8271 and give B a copy, along with DEF's Schedule K-1 and

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to your letter of May 18, 1989, I submit the following information to supplement my Financial Disclosure Statement for 1988.

Under "Holdings", the item described as "SPX Corporation" (bond-IRA/LMD), $2,292.00, is the same item described in the previous year as "Sealed Power Corporation". It appears there has been a change in the corporate name.

The holding described as "Kinder-Care" (300 shares - IRA/RJD), $2,250, is the same as the item described last year as "Sylvan Learning Corporation". It appears there was also a change in the corporate name.

The holding described as "Hadson Corporation" (WT-95 shares), $831.25, is the same as described in 1987 as "Hadson Petroleum Note". I inadvertently used a different name this year, but the holding is the same.

Under Section IX Agreements, I failed to note that there are "none".

If you need any additional information, please let me know.

Yours truly,

Dick Durbin

Dear Mr. Chairman:

It has just come to my attention that when my Financial Disclosure Statement for 1988 was typed, the word "spouse" was inadvertantly omitted after the second and third entries in Section II.A.

I regret any inconvenience this oversight may have caused.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

This letter will serve as an amendment to my Financial Disclosure Statement for 1988, Part III, Holdings.

The Financial Disclosure Statement which I submitted as a candidate in 1988 indicated that my holdings in Dreyfus Liquid Assets fell under Category A - not more than $5,000. While this account is listed under holdings since the interest earned is technically considered dividends, the account actually takes the form of a checking account. Monies in this account were used for educational purposes for my daughter last year and other miscellaneous expenses, and the account is now well below the $1,000 level for which stock must be listed separately in this category.

I hope this explanation is sufficient for your needs. If any additional information is required, please be sure to let me know.

Sincerely,

Eliot L. Engel

Dear Donn:

The disclosure form as submitted is correct. Attachment D includes two holdings of my wife, IBM and Atlantic Richfield, which were given to her by her father some years ago.

I had forgotten she had these holdings. The Atlantic Richfield has a value lower than $1000.00 and, as I now understand, need not be reported. Since the IBM shares in my wife's name are slightly over the $1000.00 reporting threshold, it should be listed as a holding of my spouse.

I hereby amend my prior disclosures to reflect such holdings.

Sincerely,

Ben Erdreich

Dear Mr. Anderson:

This is to amend the Financial Disclosure Statement for 1988 I submitted on May 12, 1989.

A question has been raised pertaining to Part III, Holdings, in the Disclosure Statement. In my Disclosure Statement for 1987, I reported ownership of an Archives Business Computer and Printer, whereas I do not report it in the 1988 statement.

To clarify this matter, I still own the Archives equipment. During 1988, I received an offer from an individual to purchase the system for $25, far below the $1000 threshold for reporting Holdings in Part III. In addition, the equipment in question was originally manufactured in 1981. For these reasons, I believe the Archives Business Computer and Printer no longer has a fair market value exceeding $1000 as of the end of calendar year 1988. Therefore, I will no longer report ownership of that system on subsequent Financial Disclosure Statements.

Thank you for bringing this matter to my attention. If there are any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Lane Evans

The Honorable Julian C. Dixon

U.S. House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for your letter of May 15, 1989, regarding a deficiency in my Financial Disclosure Statement regarding Part IV: Transactions.

1. The Treasury bill in question was not reported as a new transaction due to an oversight. It was not clearly understood that this would be considered as a form of securities transaction. This Treasury bill was acquired through the Sergeant at Arms' Office on November 17, 1988. In addition, there were two other Treasury securities listed under the holdings section under Signet Bank. These were acquired on May 16, 1988, and November 11, 1988, respectively.

2. The ELXSI stock, which was listed under Part III: Holdings had a total value of $72.00. It should, therefore, not have been included since it was under the $1,000 reporting minimum. Accordingly, I believe it would not need to be listed as a new transaction, and perhaps should be deleted from the Holdings section.

Many thanks for calling this matter to my attention.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dante B. Fascell

Dear Gentlemen:

Re: Amendment and Clarification to - Ethics In Government - Financial Disclosure Statement for 1988 - Harris W. Fawell, Member of Congress

Please consider this letter as an amendment to the abovecited Financial Disclosure Statement.

(1) Dates of receipt for honoraria listed in Part II-A:

American Consulting Engineers Council - 12/15/88
American Nuclear Energy Council - 8/10/88
Board of Trade of the City of Chicago - 9/19/88
Chicago Board of Options - 12/12/88
Chicago Mercantile Exchange - 9/16/88
National Restaurant Association - 5/10/88
Nestle Enterprises, Inc. - 4/5/88
Spiegel, Inc. - 3/16/88
Waste Management, Inc. - 12/5/88

(2) "Country Companies," reported in Part II-B, is an insurance company which has issued a policy on the life of my wife, Ruth J. Fawell; a policy which has been in existence since my wife was a child.

(3) "Home Cash Reserves," reported in Part II-B, is a new money market account which took the place of "Cash Equivalent Money Market" upon a buy-out in 1988 by Gruntal & Co. of the company (Mosely Securities) which operate the latter money market account. Although Home Cash Reserves (owned by Home Insurance Company) is a money market account, it is treated as a mutual fund for tax purposes and generates a 1099 form classifying interest engendered as a dividend.

Clerk, U.S. House of Representatives
May 23, 1989

(4) Said "Homes Cash Reserves" money market was mistakenly included in Part III (Holdings) under "Gruntal and Co." By this letter I am herewith deleting "Gruntal and Co." from Part III Holdings and inserting in lieu thereof, "Homes Cash Reserves."

If there are any further questions regarding this Disclosure, please feel free to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Harris W. Fawell

Dear Colleague:

This letter is in response to your letter dated April 20, 1989, in which you request an advisory opinion regarding the need to include your wife's financial information on your financial disclosure filing for 1988. Your letter indicates that you were married on December 31, 1988.

On page 2 of the Instructions for completing the financial disclosure statement, under the section addressing spouse and dependent disclosure, the reporting individual is required to include information concerning his or her spouse in most sections of the disclosure statement. It is the responsibility of the reporting individual to ascertain whether a spouse has, or had, financial interests or liabilities reportable under the appropriate sections. In certain rare circumstances, however, the statute provides an exemption from disclosure in the case of truly independent interests or responsibilities of a spouse.

Neither the financial disclosure statute, nor the instructions for completing the financial statement disclosure, provide a filing exemption for individuals married late in the calendar or filing year. Therefore, your wife's financial information as of December 31, 1988, must be included on your financial disclosure statement, especially as it relates to holdings and liabilities. You must also include other required information (i.e. earned income, unearned income, transactions, gifts, etc.) but only as it relates to activity that occurred as of the date of your marriage, December 31, 1988.

In a prior conversation with your staff member, Ms. Jane Riddleberger, she was erroneously informed that disclosure requirements with respect to your wife's financial information could be met by attaching a copy of your wife's financial disclosure form submitted to her employing agency, the U. S.

Department of Commerce. In order to meet disclosure requirements with respect to your wife's financial information, the information must be provided on your disclosure statement. The information may not be provided via your wife's separate financial disclosure forms.

If you have any further questions concerning this matter, please contact the Committee staff at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Julian C. Dixon

Re: Honorable James J. Florio Financial Disclosure Statement 1988

Dear Sir:

In connection with my review of your recent request to which I responded by way of a letter dated June 12, 1989, I have concluded there is a need to supplement my 1988 Financial Disclosure Statement.

Accordingly, I wish to supplement that filing as follows. Under the category Part II, Earned Income, the following should be added to my filing:

II. EARNED INCOME

Source	Type	Gross Amount	Disposition
Borough of Pine Hill Board of Education Pine Hill, N.J.	Spouse Salary	Not subject to disclosure	None

In addition, I would like to supplement my June 12th response with regard to item 5. The contingency referred to in my earlier response would have expired on January 3, 1988. To the extent this acquisition should have been included under the category of "Transactions," in addition to its disclosure under the category of "Holdings" in my 1988 filing, please consider this letter as effecting such inclusion.

Sincerely yours,

J. J. Florio

ROBERT GARCIA

1. SPOUSE AND DEPENDENT DISCLOSURE

EXEMPTION

In response to Standards for exemption, I have not included information in this report concerning property owned by Miss Kirsten Matos, my wife's daughter. She inherited a farm in Puerto Rico upon her father's death in 1984. In addition, my wife Jane Lee Garcia is obligated to repay a loan secured by a mortgage on the same property.

Disclosure concerning the financial interests and liabilities of Miss Kirsten Matos and Mrs. Jane Lee Garcia with respect to this property is not necessary because the standards for an exception are met:

1. I have no financial interest in the property and no knowledge of the details of Miss Kirsten Matos' financial interest.

2. The property is derived from Miss Matos' late father's estate, and I have no direct on indirect interest in it.

3. Because I have no interest in this property, financial of otherwise, I do not derive any financial or other benefit from it.

Dear Sir:

This letter is filed as an amendment to my financial disclosure statement which was filed on May 11, 1989.

In reviewing my statement, I find that one stock, Golden West Financial, was listed in only one part of the statement and should have been listed in two parts.

It was properly listed under Part IIB, the income section. It should also be listed under Part III, the holding section. At the end of 1988 the value would fall under category C. Earlier this year I sold all my shares of Golden West Financial and it is my understanding it should be listed also under the transaction section on the report to be filed next year.

Sincerely,

Paul Gillmor

The Honorable Julian C. Dixon, Chairman
Committee on Standards of Official Conduct
Suite HT-2, U.S. Capitol
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This is in response to your letter of May 17, 1989 concerning the Financial Disclosure Statement I filed May 15, 1989 which indicated I failed to respond to the question on trust holdings on page 2, Part III, Holdings, of that report.

That question reads as follows: "Do you, your spouse or dependent child receive income from or have a beneficial interest in a trust or other financial arrangement whose holdings were not reported because the trust is a 'qualified blind trust' or other excepted trust? Yes__No X NA__."

Neither me, my spouse, nor my children receive any such income or have any beneficial interest or other financial arrangement in such a trust. On my original filing, the space for a "no" response should have been checked.

The interests my children, my spouse, and I do have in trusts were properly disclosed on my original filing on page 2 of the continuation sheets attached to my Financial Disclosure Statement.

As further indicated in your letter of May 17, this letter constitutes my amendment to my original filing and I am sending a copy of this letter to the Clerk.

With best personal wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Dan Glickman

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of a letter dated May 25, 1989 from the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct regarding certain apparent deficiencies on my 1988 Financial Disclosure Statement. Enclosed is a copy of the checklist provided with the above letter identifying the areas to be addressed.

Please include the following information as an addendum to my Financial Disclosure Statement:

PART III. HOLDINGS

With respect to the Trust Holdings box, this should be marked N/A, as I have no beneficial interest in a trust.

PART IV. TRANSACTIONS

My 1987 Financial Disclosure Statement reported a holding in a Shearson Lehman Money Market Fund. Such fund is not reported on my 1988 Disclosure Statement, as the monies from the Money Market Fund were taken out and used to purchase the Putnam Intermediate Government Fund. Under Section IV of my 1988 Financial Disclosure Statement the purchase of the Putnam Intermediate Government Fund is reported as a transaction. I have not reported the removal of the funds from the Shearson Lehman Money Market Fund, as these are similar to cash and, since they do not represent real property, stocks, bonds, commodities, futures, or other forms of securities, they do not require reporting under this Section, based on my understanding of the instructions provided with the form.

In addition, on my 1988 Financial Disclosure Statement under Section III for Holdings, there appears an 80% interest in a Boulevard Parking Associates. I did not report this as a transaction under Section IV of the form, due to the fact that this was a spin-off from an existing investment that I have held in prior years, PHM Joint Venture, and required no investment, or exchange of investments on my part. I did note under Section III that Boulevard Parking Associates resulted from a spin-off from PHM Joint Venture.

PART V. LIABILITIES

Under Section V of my 1988 Financial Disclosure Statement there are two liabilities reported. The first is National Community Bank, and this represents a mortgage payable on real property. The second liability reported is to The Trust Company of New Jersey, and this also represents a mortgage payable secured by real property.

I hope the above information satisfies your inquiry and I regret any inconvenience caused by this matter.

Sir:

As was pointed out by letter of May 16th from the chairman and ranking member of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, the Trust Holdings Box under Section III near the bottom of page 2 of my Financial Disclosure Statement for 1988, was inadvertently overlooked.

That entry should have been "no."

I trust this amendment completes the filing requirements.

Sincerely,

John Paul Hammerschmidt

Each partnership filed a K-1 form as required by the Internal Revenue Service. Nevertheless, I have chosen to list each partnership and state the category of earnings (or losses) to which my interest could be attributed, as follows:
